

BWTC and MODA Mall hosts annual appreciation event for Bahrain media community

Acknowledges media role in highlighting the contribution of both assets to Bahrain's commercial real estate sector

Manama, Bahrain, November 2017: Bahrain World Trade Center (BWTC) and MODA Mall, recently hosted its annual appreciation event for the Bahrain media community, acknowledging their extensive support throughout the year.

At the media gathering held at Maki restaurant, speaking on behalf of Bahrain World Trade Center (BWTC) and MODA Mall's managing agent, Cushman & Wakefield Bahrain, Kelvin Crutchlow, Director & General Manager expressed his gratitude for the positive exposure extended by the media for its various strategic sponsorships and campaigns, including CSR initiatives and consumer-focused activities. He also commended the media's significant role in highlighting BWTC and MODA Mall's contribution to the commercial real estate sector in Bahrain, further enhancing its engagement with the local community.

MODA Mall's new collaboration with Durrat Marina, one of the leading real estate developers in the Kingdom was also shared with the media, as part of the mall's latest consumer marketing campaign, in addition to other initiatives and partnerships for both assets, which are currently in the pipeline.
